Sheerit to 'Post': Halt all settlement building
Transportation Minister and former Likud veteran says not a "single additional house" should be built in the West Bank.

Related:
Livni: Barrier route has implications for future border

AIPAC raps US handling of Iran nukes
Voicing rare criticism against the Bush administration.

Judges' Selection Cmte. fires Hila Cohen
Members agree unanimously in a precedent-setting decision.

PM: Iranian nukes unacceptable
"Dangers affect other nations as well as Israel," says Sharon.

US Jews support Israel, don't speak up
New poll also finds backing strong among day school grads, older Jews.

PM: Israel to control its own security
Sharon touches on critical issues at yearly editors' committee in Tel Aviv.

EDITORIALS
End of the Peres era
Leaving the Labor Party signals the end of an era, even if he still returns as a minister.

FEATURES
Behind the Lines: Media myths
By ANSHEL PFEFFER
Accusing Netanyah of ruining Israeli society is as demagogic as claiming he is an economic savior.
New on Blogcentral!
Show and Tel Aviv's life changes when he becomes a dog-owner, Lone Soldier can't shake visions of Nablus, and Electionscape scrutinizes Israel's unpredictable politics.

[ Read more » ]

NOW ON JPOST.COM

ISRAEL
Sheerit to 'Post': Halt all settlement building
Judges' Selection Cmte. fires Hila Cohen
PM: Israel to control its own security

MIDDLE EAST
Hamas leader says group won't disarm
Analysis on Iran: Little time left for sanctions
Gunmen storm PA offices in Gaza

INTERNATIONAL
Bush defends embattled war policy
Dershowitz and Chomsky battle it out
United States acknowledges world concern over terror sites

JEWSIH NEWS
Non-Orthodox movements launch conversion campaign
'Kadima', says Seattle synagogue
Demjanjuk deportation trial continues

IN JERUSALEM
The new face of Israeli Judaism
HCJ rebukes municipality, Education Ministry over education in e. Jerusalem

BUSINESS NEWS
Sheerit: El Al protection was a mistake
Intel approves $3.5 billion Kiryat Gat plant
Orpak UK IPO to raise $25m.